

A SCENT LIKE WOLVES

BIOGRAPHY

Berks County PA's six piece outfit, A SCENT LIKE WOLVES has been making a huge impact in both the local scene and other crowds on the east coast. A SCENT LIKE WOLVES combines the intensity of the metalcore genre with the melody and song writing ability of an alternative band, allowing them to integrate flawlessly into numerous scenes. This interesting blend of polar opposite genres was masterfully recorded by Carson Slovak and Grant McFarland (August Burns Red, Texas In July, Affiance) in the form of '...And the Story Goes', A SCENT LIKE WOLVES' self-released LP. Using raw power and disciplined musicianship, the band has been picking up more and more momentum with every show they play, from basement shows to convention centers. A SCENT LIKE WOLVES are certain to be PA's newly discovered break out performers.
